A two-hour minimum applies for all interpretation assignments. If the interpretation is not virtual, but in person, a $50.00 per hour travel fee will be added. We always try to find interpreters located close to assignments to cut down on travel costs.

Rates may be higher for highly technical subject matter, and some Chinese and Indonesian interpreters charge a 3-hour minimum. However, we would let you know that beforehand.

Cancellations are accepted without charge up to 24 hours before the assignment begins (unless otherwise specified) and up to 48 hours for sign-language assignments. If you have an interpreter scheduled for Monday, you must call by 4:00 pm on Friday. Late cancellations are charged the two-hour minimum. If cancellations are made within two hours of the assignment, travel may be charged as well.

Simultaneous interpretation rates vary for each assignment.
