To: President of the Board of Education and members of the Board of Education,

Dr. Gerry Benaquista, Superintendent of Schools,, Yolanda Koon, Bd. Secretary
Subject: Donation of grant materials from Township of Union Education Foundation

Per previous discussions with the Superintendent of Schools, now that all of the donated materials for the grants which were previously approved by the Board of Education have been received by the grant recipients, I am attaching the receipts so that the equipment can now officially be made property of the Board of Education and be added to the inventory of the Board of Education. The following information is attached:

Two receipts from Scholastic:

One receipt: for materials ordered for Cynthia Carhart, for 80 subscriptions for SuperSTEM for 80 third grade students at Connecticut Farms School-$659.12; for materials ordered for Olga Korzen, for 80 subscriptions of SuperSTEM for 80 fourth grade students at Connecticut Farms School, $659.12; and for Mary Ellen Patricco for 70 subscriptions of Scholastic News for 70 fourth grade students at Connecticut Farms School, $515.63

Additional receipt for 10 more subscriptions of Scholastic News for additional 10 fourth grade students at Connecticut Farms School, $68.75, from grant requested by Mary Ellen Patricco

Signed receipt that 100 copies of the book "Dry" ordered for use by eighth graders at Kawameeh Middle School, grant requested by Danielle Stabler and Nikki Kelly, cost of $1119.00, was received

Signed receipt that Essential Cookware was received for grant requested by Marcy Musarra and Lauren Kohn for use for 9-12 graders at Union High School, cost of $194.95

Signed receipt that materials for grant for December Field-Moore for all students at Franklin School was received at cost of $982.59

It is our pleasure to donate these materials to the district.
